DOCKET ENTRY

(MH) Telephone Conference (Rptr- C. Barron)

Telephone conference held on J. C. Nickens' July 19, 2004 letter request for ruling concerning a deposition issue and James Farrell's July 20, 2004 letter response. The Court rules that if a situation arises in deposition that would require the party being deposed to identify the handwriting, if the party being deposed cannot answer quickly, the deposing party may present the material to the party being deposed outside the actual deposition so that the party being deposed will be prepared to answer immediately upon resumption of the deposition.
